CAMP FREMONT MAY BE MADE PERMANENT

The permanency and improvement of Camp Fremont was conclusively indicated yesterday by the announcement of extensive construction work by the army. Major J. B. Chaffey, work master, will begin immediately on an extension and improvement of the water system of the camp proper and of the base hospital. While the water system within the camp has proven efficient in the past, the pressure has not been sufficiently high for all purposes.

A $20,000 appropriation has been made for the improvement of the present water system, and especially for the enlargement of the supply mains for the purpose of giving a higher pressure system to the camp. The work, which is being started this week, will give the camp better protection against fire than it has had in addition to the improvement of the water supply within the camp an appropriation of $16,000 has been made for the erection of two tanks of 50,000-gallon capacity at the base hospital. These tanks will serve as pressure regulators and will act as a reserve supply in case of fire.

According to Major Chaffey no formal plans have been made for the extension of the sewage system within the camp. At present one-fifth of the camp has a modern sewage system, the remainder using a cesspool system. This fact the system has proved itself satisfactory and it is probable that no change will be made. According to the sanitary reports, Camp Fremont ranks very high among the army camps of the country.

The $36,000 appropriation for the water system, together with the construction of the Jewish Welfare building and numerous other improvements is taken as a positive indication that the war department not only intends to maintain Camp Fremont as one of the important training camps in the Western division, but that a general enlargement and improvement of the camp is indicated.

MALICIOUS FIGHT AGAINST MR. HAYES IS CONDEMNED

The following telegram received from Washington is self-explanatory: Hon. E. A. Hayes, San Jose, Cal. My Dear Colleague: I was very much surprised to learn of the malicious, malignant and mendacious fight being waged against you in your candidacy for re-election. You are recognized in Washington as one of the ablest and most influential members of the House of Representatives. During and after the war your district, your state and your country will need your services in Washington. I cannot believe that the lying and disreputable campaign being conducted by your opponent can possibly result in your defeat. On the contrary, I believe as a rebuke to such policies your constituents will return you to Congress by an increased majority. Sincerely yours, C. F. CURRY, M. C.

FILED A SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Henry H. Hagen, through his attorney, John D. Willard, has commenced an action for damages in the Superior Court against the South San Francisco Railroad and Power Company to recover damages in the sum of $750, costs of suit and disbursements amounting to $124. The complaint alleges that plaintiff while seated in a surry was crossing the tracks of defendant at Grand avenue and was run into by an electric car owned by the company. Hagen was thrown out and badly injured. The plaintiff alleges that the injuries of plaintiff were caused by the carelessness of defendant.

HEALTH INSURANCE

the year 'round

Were you ever sick in your back?

Did you ever lie there and wonder how you would get enough money to buy food for the wife and children?

Health Insurance will pay your doctor and give you part of your wages while you are sick.

It does for sickness what workmen's compensation does for industrial accidents. It includes the family.

Selfish interests are fighting it tooth and nail, just as they fought workmen's compensation. Senator Hiram Johnson, Gov. William D. Stephens, Mayor James Rolph, Theodore Roosevelt, William G. McAdoo, Dr. Alexander Lambert, head of the American Red Cross in France, Daniel C. Murphy, president of the California State Federation of Labor, Dr. Woods Hutchinson—men like these are for it.

A WORD OF PRAISE FROM CLERGYMAN

To the Editor, Redwood City Times-Bazette, Redwood City, California.

Sir: Hon. E. A. Hayes, now a member of Congress, representing this (Eleventh) District, is a candidate for re-election. Mr. Hayes succeeded Congressman Eugene F. Loud, who served this district for six successive terms. Congressman Loud's long and able service to his constituents and to the country, made his career a notable one. The voters of this district have evidently appreciated the value of the Commonwealth that steady service in the national legislature bestows, for Mr. Hayes, Congressman Loud's successor, has been returned to Congress seven times. This long period of service has given the citizens of this district ample opportunity to know just what sort of a statesman Mr. Hayes has proved himself to be.

Mr. Hayes' record in Congress is an enviable one. He is the ranking Republican member of the Committee on Banking and Currency and of the Committee on Immigration. For his share in framing the Federal Reserve Bill he was publicly commended by Congressman Louis Glass, chairman of the committee. In Congress Mr. Hayes is known as a man of integrity and of unusual ability. Despite the efforts of his political rivals to discredit his official acts, he has the endorsement of the leaders in Congress, both Democrats and Republicans.

But my object in writing this letter is to refer particularly to Mr. Hayes' record here at home. He has been a citizen of Santa Clara County for many years, and his life is an open book. I know Mr. Hayes, and I know whereof I speak. He is a man of unblemished character. He is a true patriot, and has given three sons to the army, and one daughter is engaged in Red Cross work in France.

Because of troubled conditions some of our citizens may feel inclined to stay away from the polls next Tuesday. For myself I shall feel compelled to perform the chief duty of my citizenship on that day, and I shall vote for Mr. Hayes for Congress.

REV. W. A. BREWER,
Burlingame, California, October 31, 1918.

MR. B. F. BROWN INJURED IN RAILROAD ACCIDENT

Mrs. B. F. Brown, nee Gould, during the week received a letter from her husband who left with a troop train from Camp Fremont last week. He was among those injured in the wreck of the train at Geneva, Illinois. He suffered a fracture of the bones of his left leg and will be laid up for three months. Mr. Brown is at a hospital in Geneva with 18 others who were injured in the crash. It is most likely that he will be discharged from the service when he becomes well. He belongs to an infantry regiment.

S. COLOMBO SEEKS DIVORCE

Salvatore Colombo has commenced divorce proceedings in the superior court against his wife, Angelina Colombo, on the ground of desertion. The Colombos were married in Italy on January 20, 1900 and separated at Redwood City on March 8, 1916. All the property rights have been adjudicated out of court. There are no children as a result of the union. James T. O'Keefe is the attorney for plaintiff.

WE DID NOT SAY IT

William H. Barg has a perfect right to quote from the columns of The Enterprise in his political advertising, but, through what may be an inadvertence, Barg's advertising is creating a false impression as to what The Enterprise really did say. In our issue of August 16 we recommended that the voters retain in office "Those who have demonstrated their fitness for them." Upon this editorial Barg has based his paid appeals to the voters under the caption "Elect the Incumbent," says the South San Francisco Enterprise. All well and good.

It is the sentence appearing in the advertising, also in quotations, reading "No man wants to change but the man who wants the office," which we disclaim.

Every election has demonstrated that a large percentage of the voters do desire a change—although they do not always get it.

We did not say "No man wants a change but the man who wants the office." Such an expression editorially would be a direct condemnation of those aspirants who have earned the right to run for public office, and the voters who cast their ballots for them.

Barg's friends should tell him so—South San Francisco Enterprise.

MARY E. DOYLE LAID TO REST LAST TUESDAY

The mortal remains of Mrs. Mary E. Doyle, widow of the late Peter Doyle, were laid to rest in Holy Cross cemetery, Menlo Park, last Tuesday morning beside the grave of loved ones long gone before. The following old time friends acted as pallbearers: P. F. Chamberlain, J. F. Ford, Carl Muller, Clark Rice, J. J. Hahne and J. J. Shields.

After a long and painful illness borne with true Christian fortitude Mrs. Doyle passed to her eternal rest last Saturday at her home at 52 Myrtle street, Redwood Highlands, surrounded by her loved ones. Mrs. Doyle was born in Boston, Massachusetts 63 years ago but as a child came with her parents to Redwood City. In early days her father, the late John Roney, owned the tannery now conducted by Mrs. Beeger.

Many years ago she married Peter Doyle, the pioneer blacksmith. Five children were born to the couple, Joseph H., Stanley P., Omar E., Irene and Helen A. Doyle.

In 1909, the family moved to San Francisco to reside, and while there the father, the eldest son, Joseph, who had become one of the most promising young dentists of that city and Helen A., the youngest daughter, passed away. The loss of her husband and two children and later her devoted sister, Miss Annie Roney, the well-known singer, was keenly felt by Mrs. Doyle, and she returned to Redwood City some five years ago with her devoted son, Omar, badly broken in spirit and in health.

The deceased leaves three children to mourn her loss—Stanley P. Doyle, residing in San Francisco; Omar E. Doyle of this city, Mrs. A. L. Ofield, wife of Dr. Ofield of Burlingame—and one brother, John Roney of San Francisco.

Mrs. Doyle was a noble woman, kind and loving, esteemed and honored by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

HALFMOON BAY BREEZES

While playing cards with some friends in the Occidental Hotel at Halfmoon Bay Sunday afternoon, William G. Mullen, a well-known farmer of Minnabar, above Halfmoon Bay, dropped dead from heart failure. The funeral was held Tuesday morning from Halfmoon Bay.

Mr. Jay B. Nash, deputy state commissioner of Physical Culture, had this to say of a recent visit to the Halfmoon Bay grammar school: "I was so enthused over the spirited game of soccer football. I found H. C. Hall, Jr., playing with the boys that I stripped off coat and vest and took a hand in it. In a twenty-minute game the boys had us professors well warmed up and breathing hard. Such a game I consider the best feature of the physical culture movement. I believe in spirited school games under the supervision of the teacher as far better than costly equipment of rings and bars in which but a few children may participate. Equip for baseball, football, basketball, etc., in which bodies of children may play, and watch every opportunity for lessons in good social morals and fair play."

Vote for W. C. Wood for State Superintendent of Schools. On the tax limitations amendments vote "No" on number 17 and "Yes" on number 18.

FOR GOVERNOR
W. D. STEPHENS

FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT
THOMAS J. LENNON

FOR CONGRESS
E. A. HAYES

GOVERNOR STEPHENS SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED TUESDAY

California should re-elect Governor Stephens to perpetuate those reforms in state government which will be necessary in the adaptation of the people to the tremendous problems that will come after the war. In the opinion of Joseph Scott, Los Angeles lawyer, orator and lecturer, who yesterday announced himself for Stephens.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS

Scott's statement follows: "In the present crisis of the affairs of the nation and of California Governor Stephens should be re-elected. His record on every phase of this war game has been 100 per cent straight, clean and unequivocal. Before the war his record as a Congressman from Los Angeles was equally perfect on all the great problems involving the question of preparedness, and his vision was almost prophetic on the needs of the great American navy."

Record Stands Test.

"His war activities while in office as Governor of this state can withstand every 'acid test' of undiluted patriotism. Without disparaging his opponent, California needs him to perpetuate those reforms in our government which have been approved by the overwhelming mass of the people, and which are necessary to perfect the machinery to adapt ourselves to the tremendous problems which will come after the war."

"My belief is the vast bulk of our people are not thinking along the lines of partisan politics in these days. Nevertheless every effort which President Wilson and the Federal government desires to put forth in insure the speedy readjustment of our lives to normal conditions after the war will secure the unstinted support and approval of Governor Stephens."

Would Eliminate Lines.

"In a more personal way, may I say as a man whose life has been spent for twenty-five years in Southern California, that this is no time for geographical lines to be drawn in politics here. I have in other campaigns endorsed, more than once, the claims of a man from the north as against one from the south, where I believe the interests of the people demanded it, but I have no hesitation in saying that Governor Stephens hails from Southern California, he measures up to every requirement that involves the elimination of any territorial lines of government, and that, if elected to succeed himself as governor, he will be the chief executive of all California."

BAR ASSOCIATION FAVORS JUDGE THOS. J. LENNON

Stockton, California, October 1, 1918.—To Whom It May Concern: We, the undersigned members of the San Joaquin County Bar Association, do hereby most heartily endorse and recommend the election of Hon. Thos. J. Lennon and Hon. Curtis D. Wilbur to the two vacant places about to occur in the Supreme Court of the State of California.

We feel that the work of these two Judges has been of such grade as to entitle them to the respective positions to which they aspire. What the Bar needs now is a hard-working painstaking Supreme Court, and we feel that these gentlemen will assist materially in achieving that result.

We, therefore, cordially recommend them to the consideration of all the other members of the Bar throughout the State.

President Wilson has added nothing to his popularity in his latest appeal to the country to return a democratic congress. He has made a grave mistake, but big men will err. Others have done so. It would have been better had President Wilson not made such an appeal. There is hardly any doubt but that the people will resent this by electing a Republican congress. All parties and all classes have been loyal to the president, and there should be no distinction made at this time.

SPEAKS HIGHLY OF CONGRESSMAN E. A. HAYES

The question of the loyalty and patriotism of Congressman E. A. Hayes that has been raised in certain parts of the District is being answered in a most effective way by the leading members of the House of Representatives, both Republican and Democratic. Is it not fair to assume that these members who have watched Mr. Hayes' official conduct for years are able to judge the quality of his patriotism? Here is what some of the leaders of Congress say of him:

Hon. Frederick H. Gillett, of Massachusetts, Republican floor leader, in a telegram dated September 13, 1918, to Hon. Raymond Benjamin, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of California, said of Mr. Hayes: "In my opinion the conduct of a man since the declaration of war is the true test of his 'loyalty.' By that test Mr. Hayes' loyalty and patriotism are as true and unequivocal as that of any member of the House. He has consistently supported the war measures and his record is unimpeachable as an earnest advocate of the unflinching prosecution of the war."

Hon. Claude Kitchin, the Democratic floor leader and chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, in a speech in the House on September 13, 1918, on the bill giving the President power to fix the price at which government bonds could be sold by those who hold them, stated: "I had doubts about this measure, as does the distinguished gentleman from California (Mr. Hayes) who, as we all know, is as intensely loyal and patriotic as any man in this Capitol, until I had ascertained the facts which fully justify it." Congressional Record, Page 11,216.

Hon. Julius Kahn, ranking Republican member of the Committee on Military Affairs in the House and "champion of all the war measures passed in Congress, in a letter to Mr. John R. Chase under date of September 12, 1918, made these statements: "I have received several inquiries about the loyalty of Mr. Hayes, and take pleasure in writing you that there can be no question at all as to Mr. Hayes' patriotism, loyalty and devotion to his country. Prior to our entrance into the present war many questions of preparedness arose in the House, notably on the Defense Act and Army and Navy Appropriation bills. As I now recall, Mr. Hayes on every occasion voted for preparedness."

Reference is then made by him to several leading Democratic members of Congress who voted against the war resolution and draft bills. Congressman Kahn then continues: "I am sure nobody questions the loyalty of these Democrats. Since that legislation, however, Mr. Hayes has vigorously supported all war measures, and I feel satisfied that now that the country is in the war he will be found standing for every measure that will be proposed for bringing it to a complete and victorious conclusion."

Those words are you to take as to Mr. Hayes' patriotism, that of the leading statesmen of the nation who have been associated with him in his public work, or that of his political opponents who are uninformed and prejudiced in their presentation of the matter?

SHEEHAN FOR SHERIFF

Mr. M. Sheehan during his four years as sheriff has demonstrated his fitness for the office by the efficient manner in which he has conducted his affairs. He certainly has earned another term. At the recent primary election he came in a few votes of receiving a majority of the combined votes of his three opponents. There is hardly any doubt of Mr. Sheehan's election, however, he should be given an overwhelming vote on next Tuesday. The people owe it to him. He has made good, has safely guarded the interests of his constituency, has been economical in conducting the office and at all times has been courteous and affable to all those having business with his department. Elect Sheehan sheriff. Let this be the slogan on next Tuesday.

Governor W. D. Stephens has by his official acts during his incumbency as governor has shown himself to be an independent and fearless man, has made a good governor, efficient and honest. He should be elected. By all means continue him as chief executive.

Return Hon. E. A. Hayes to Congress by an overwhelming vote. He has served the people faithfully for fourteen years and will continue to do so. The country needs his experience during the next Congress when the reconstruction period will begin. To defeat him at this time would be a political error. Send him back to Washington with an increased vote.

WOMEN WILL SUPPORT JUDGE THOS. J. LENNON

The candidacy of Judge Thomas J. Lennon for the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California has won a general and very enthusiastic support from the women of the State. This has found expression in the organization of a central body of public-spirited women with headquarters in San Francisco and affiliated branches in the other leading cities of the State. The granting of suffrage to women has inspired in them an active and intensely personal interest not only in the enactment of laws but in their administration and construction by the courts.

This was apparent at a meeting of the central organization of San Francisco women who are giving their undivided attention to a systematic campaign to accomplish the election of Judge Lennon. This meeting was held at the headquarters of the Association in the Palace Hotel recently. Representative women, who are prominent in public affairs and discussions, were present and listened to a brief address by Mrs. Adolph Vogel on the advantages and manifold benefits to everyone compelled to seek the aid of the courts of what is now generally known as the "Lennon Plan."

The author of this plan, the speaker explained, is Judge Lennon, in behalf of whose candidacy the members of the associated clubs are working. The plan is designed by Judge

JUDGE T. J. LENNON

Lennon, Mrs. Vogel declared, to expedite litigation, to remove the long and annoying delays of legal process and to decide, absolutely upon their merits, cases by decision from the bench. The plan was put into effective operation in the District Court of Appeal by Judge Lennon after a determined educational campaign and it has effected reforms that recommend themselves as absolutely necessary in the affairs of the Supreme Court, which is now about three years behind in its work. Judge Lennon should be elevated to a higher post of usefulness, for the introduction of measures of modern practice and agencies of needed improvement in the administration of the court of last resort.

COMPULSORY HEALTH INSURANCE OPPOSED

Has Compulsory Health Insurance been investigated and adopted by any other American State?

Compulsory Health Insurance has been investigated by a number of States. All have refused it. It is an enemy to our free institutions. New York twice rejected this Compulsory Health Insurance device. The New Jersey Legislature also refused to adopt it, and Massachusetts, after a thorough investigation by two commissions, and with all the alleged facts procured by the Social Insurance Commission of California before it, rejected Compulsory Social Insurance in its Constitutional Convention by an overwhelming vote.

HELP LOS ANGELES COUNTY

Los Angeles county is asking the voters of the State to support Proposition No. 7 of this year's official ballot, for Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 67. The Amendment permits Los Angeles County to use a fund of about a million dollars it has recently saved up to wipe out an old deficit. Nobody outside of Los Angeles County will be affected and it does not involve increased taxes even there. Everybody should vote "Yes" on Proposition 7.

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON FOR STATE TREASURER

Friend Wm. Richardson has earned the right to a unanimous vote for state treasurer. He has proved his patriotism by placing the treasury on a currency basis and turning several million in gold over to the federal reserve bank. This has proved a help in winning the war. While having no authority in the policy of public expenditure, he has stood like a rock against illegal attacks upon the treasury.

His office is run economically and efficiently and a great volume of business is handled with a very small force. He has increased the interest revenue on state deposits more than forty thousand dollars a year. He is always ready and willing to be of service to any citizen. Put an "X" after his name.

Vote for Judge Thomas J. Lennon for associate justice of the supreme court and place a man in that tribunal in the prime of life who is in the full possession of his faculties and bodily strength to efficiently perform the duties of that position.

Will H. Barg has made an efficient Recorder, is courteous, painstaking and may always be found at his desk. Such an official deserves at his hands the vote of the voter and taxpayer.

Vote yes for Assembly Amendment No. 2, it appears as No. 10 on the ballot. The adoption of this amendment assures home rule in your affairs.

CALIFORNIA AND CALIFORNIANS

BY GENERAL JOHN F. SHEEHAN

Leland Stanford's Political Career.

Among the first in California to join the ranks of the newly born Republican party was Leland Stanford. In 1856 he was a merchant in Sacramento, and brave was the business man in those days who dared take the initiative in grappling with the Democratic party. Whigs were vanishing—the party of Henry Clay in its death throes—north and south, was gressive. The new party was practically the same as the Democratic. He found the eloquent E. S. Hollins, Cole, Trainer W. A. Sargent, Edward S. A. Tuttle, E. B. Crocker, C. P. Huntington, a kins, who braved the dirt and dirt, eye even of their political opponents, some years a ford became Governor of the State. Stanford, in the Senate, the head of his race, of Ball's Bluff, living in Los Angeles to the century mark, representative and Senator, did Stanford's name by Lincoln to be North Carolina;

He was always prominent in public life:

and the two Crockers, Huntington and Hopkins became associated with Stanford in the great trans-continental railroad enterprise. As was expected, the "Pathfinder" John C. Fremont, failed to find the trail which led to the Presidential chair, Buchanan winning, and Fillmore going out with the dying White party.

had been rent in twain. Broderick Democrats went over by thousands to the Union Republican party. For the '61 campaign Stanford was again Republican nominee for Governor and won by the following vote: Stanford, 56,086; John R. McConnell (Southern Democrat) 32,751; John Conners (Douglas Dem.) 30,944. The story of Governor Stanford's two years' administration is told in our article. Covering a period that tried men's souls, from Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis to the humblest citizen from Virginia to Texas and from Maine to Oregon. In 1862 Stanford desired to be re-nominated but the fact that he was at the head of a great growing corporation on which threatened to be a monopoly created opposition. The Legislature overwhelmingly Republican, and as United States Senator James T. Farley's (Dem.) term was to expire on March 3, 1885, there was much stir over his successor. The Legislature body was also pro-railroad, and Ex-Senator A. A. Sargent, who owing to Cleveland's election as president, was about to lose his place as Minister to Germany, deemed that the Senatorship belonged to him, and in this view and worthy ambition he was earnestly supported by Collis P. Huntington, Vice-President of the Southern Pacific railroad company, and one of the original "big four" of the Central Pacific. But these gentlemen reckoned without the big man at the helm, President Leland Stanford. The truth of history is that Stanford did not want the Senator-

After the legislators were elected in 1884, Haymond, Henry Vrooman, David McClure, Stephen Gage, "Jack" Wright and other warm friends of Stanford vehemently insisted that the Ex-Governor should be the Senator, and finally, although still protesting Leland Stanford consented and the following January was elected United States Senator. The writer of this was in the confidence of Creed Haymond at the time and always remained his friend and knows whereof he speaks. In the caucus Ex-Governor Perkins received thirty complimentary votes. Sargent was not in the running. The Democrats selected George Hearst as their candidate. Stanford was re-elected in 1891. The Senator died June 21, 1893, while serving his second term as Senator. The Legislature not being in session, on July 22 following Governor Markham appointed Ex-Governor George C. Per-

FOR GOVERNOR

SUPREME COURT
THOMAS J. LENNON
FOR CONGRESS
E. A. HAYES

GOVERNOR STEPHENS SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED

California should re-elect Stephens to perpetuate those in state government which necessary in the adaptation people to the tremendous changes that will come after the war, opinion of Joseph Scott, Los lawyer, orator and lecturer.

GOVERNOR STEPHENS

today announced himself for Stephens. Scott's statement followed: "In the present crisis of the of the nation and of California Governor Stephens should be re-elected. His record on every phase of war game has been 100 per cent straight, clean and unswerving. Before the war his record as a congressman from Los Angeles equally perfect on all the great problems involving the question of peace, and his vision was also prophetic on the needs of the American navy."

Record Stands Test.
"His war activities while in as Governor of this state can stand every 'acid test' of unadorned patriotism. Without disparaging his opponent, California need him to perpetuate those reforms our government which have been proved by the overwhelming will of the people, and which are necessary to perfect the machinery adapt ourselves to the tremendous problems which will come after war."

"My belief is the vast bulk of people are not thinking along lines of partisan politics in the days. Nevertheless every effort will be made to put forth government desires to put forth insure the speedy readjustment our lives to normal conditions after the war will secure the unstinted support and approval of Governor Stephens."

Would Eliminate Lines.
"In a more personal way, may say as a man whose life has been spent for twenty-five years in Southern California, that this is no time for geographical lines to be drawn in politics here. I have in other campaigns endeavored, more than once, to claim of a man from the north against one from the south, where believe the interests of the people demanded it, but I have no hesitation in saying that Governor Stephens hail from Southern California, he measures up to every requirement that involves the elimination of any territorial lines of government, and that, if elected to succeed himself as governor, he will be the chief executive of all California."

BAR ASSOCIATION FAVORS JUDGE THOS. J. LENNON

Stockton, California, October 1, 1918.—To Whom It May Concern: We, the undersigned members of the San Joaquin County Bar Association, do hereby most heartily endorse and recommend the election of Hon. Thos. J. Lennon and Hon. Curtis D. Wilbur to the two vacant places about to occur in the Supreme Court of the State of California.

We feel that the work of these two Judges has been of such grade as to entitle them to the respective positions to which they aspire. What the Bar needs now is a hard-working, painstaking Supreme Court, and we feel that these gentlemen will assist materially in achieving that result.

We, therefore, cordially recommend them to the consideration of all of the other members of the Bar throughout the State.

President Wilson has added nothing to his popularity in his latest appeal to the country to return a democratic congress. He has made a grave mistake, but big men will err, others have done so. It would have been better had President Wilson not made such an appeal. There is hardly any doubt but that the people will resent this by electing a Republican congress. All parties and all classes have been loyal to the president and there should be no distinction made at this time.

WOMEN WILL SUPPORT JUDGE THOS. J. LENNON
The candidacy of Judge Thomas J. Lennon for the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California has won a general and very enthusiastic support from the women of the State. This has found expression in the organization of a central body of public-spirited women with headquarters in San Francisco and affiliated branches in the other leading cities of the State. The granting of suffrage to women has inspired in them an active and intensely personal interest not only in the enactment of laws but in their administration and construction by the courts.

FRIEND WM. RICHARDSON FOR STATE TREASURER
Friend Wm. Richardson has earned the right to a unanimous vote for state treasurer. He has proved his patriotism by placing the treasury on a currency basis and turning several million in gold over to the federal reserve bank. This has proved a help in winning the war. While having no authority in the policy of public expenditure, he has stood like a rock against illegal attacks upon the treasury. His office is run economically and efficiently and a great volume of business is handled with a very small force. He has increased the interest revenue on state deposits more than

MILLIONS ARE DUMPED INTO THE SOUTH
Will H. Hays, chairman of the National Republican Committee, has forwarded the following communication to all the Republican papers of California:
In passing out the appropriations for army camps and cantonments the Democratic administration gave $490,306,991.34 to sixteen states south of the Mason and Dixon line and only $200,559,222.01 to all the other states.
The division of the original appropriations by states was as follows:
Alabama $61,386,145.36
Arkansas 15,409,572.56
Florida 7,278,201.24
Georgia 28,710,845.85
Kentucky 8,375,239.90
Louisiana 6,240,474.65
Maryland 39,187,441.87
Mississippi 5,544,514.92
New Mexico 4,007,545.86
North Carolina 4,518,761.39
Oklahoma 5,174,646.07
South Carolina 19,045,284.95
Tennessee 76,872,100.00
Texas 32,652,744.11
Virginia and West 176,103,472.61
Total $490,306,991.34
These original appropriations have recently been increased by over $105,000,000, making a total of approximately $600,000,000 that has been or is being spent by the United States on camps, cantonments and military plants in the South.

A cantonment was located at Louisville, Ky., at an initial cost of $8,375,279. This cantonment was located there in spite of the recommendation of two military commissions to the contrary. Army authorities recommended the use of Fort Benjamin Harrison at Indianapolis, where the government already owned ample ground for a cantonment and where there was in existence quarters large enough to accommodate a vast number of troops. Indianapolis was also admirably adapted for the site of a cantonment by reason of its railroad facilities and belt line.

Louisville is the home district of Representative Sherley, Democratic chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. Louisville got the $8,375,279 cantonment and Indianapolis the choice of the military experts, got a $582,000 repair depot. On October 4, last, it was announced that Louisville was to get another cantonment, with an initial appropriation of $20,000,000. This gives Representative Sherley two cantonments in his district involving the expenditure of nearly $30,000,000 of the government's money.

CALIFORNIA AND CALIFORNIANS

BY GENERAL JOHN F. SHEEHAN

Leland Stanford's Political Career.

Among the first in California to join the ranks of the newly born Republican party was Leland Stanford. In 1856 he was a merchant in Sacramento, and brave was the business man in those days who dared take the initiative in grappling with the Democratic party. Whigs were vanishing—the party of Henry Clay was in its death throes—but Democracy north and south, was virulently aggressive. The new party was composed principally of northern Whigs, while practically the Southern Whigs became Democrats. Besides Stanford we find the eloquent E. D. Baker, the equally eloquent P. S. Tracy, Cornelius Cole, Trainor W. Parks, Aaron A. Tuttle, E. B. Crocker, Chas. Crocker, C. P. Huntington, and Mark Hopkins, who braved the jeers and stones and dirt, aye even the rotten eggs of their political opponents. Of this coterie, some years afterward, Stanford became Governor and United States Senator; Baker represented Oregon in the Senate and died at the head of his regiment at the battle of Ball's Bluff; Cornelius Cole (yet living in Los Angeles and very near to the century mark) became Representative in the Senate and died as did Sargent; Stanley was appointed by Lincoln to be War Governor of North Carolina; Tuttle and Park were always prominent in public life; and the two Crockers, Huntington and Hopkins became associated with Stanford in the great trans-continental railroad enterprise. As was expected, the "Pathfinder" John C. Fremont, failed to find the trail which led to the Presidential chair, Buchanan winning, and Fillmore going out with the dying Whig party. When the State campaign was on in 1857 Stanford was defeated for Lieutenant Governor by D. W. Chessman in the Republican convention but was placed on the ticket for Treasurer. The Democrats, with John B. Weller for Governor, won. Two years later Stanford was chosen by the Republicans to head their ticket, but was overwhelmingly defeated by Milton S. Latham, the vote being: Latham, 62,255; Curry, 31,298; Stanford, 10,110. Latham, although Northern born, represented the Lecompton or Southern slavery wing of the Democratic party; John Curry (afterwards Supreme Court Justice and a Union Republican) was the nominee of the Douglas-Broderick Democracy. But Leland Stanford had not long to wait. Two years effected a wonderful change in the politics of the state and nation. Before another State election Abraham Lincoln had been chosen President, Sumner had been fired on, the battle of Bull Run had been fought, the Democratic party had been rent in twain. Broderick Democrats went over by thousands to the Union Republican party. For the '61 campaign Stanford was again Republican nominee for Governor and won by the following vote: Stanford, 56,086; John R. McConnell (Southern Democrat) 32,751; John Conners (Douglas Dem.) 30,944. The story of Governor Stanford's two years' administration is told in another article. Covering a period that tried men's souls, from Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis to the humblest citizen from Virginia to Texas and from Maine to Oregon. In 1863 Stanford desired to be re-nominated but the fact that he was at the head of a great growing corporation on which threatened to be a monopoly created opposition. The Alta-California newspaper styled the Central Pacific "The Dutch Flat Swindle," charging that the corporation was selling stock for a trans-continental railroad when its managers had no intention of climbing the Sierras but would stop at the little mining town in Placer county. Fred F. Low, a banker of Marysville whose term in Congress had expired, wanted to be Governor, made such a strong showing before the Convention that Stanford withdrew and Low became the first four-year Governor, the Constitution having been amended.

But the loss of the Governorship did not retire Leland Stanford from political activity. As President of the great railroad corporation he exercised more political power than Senators, Representatives or Governors, many of whom he created such. His influence was sought by aspirants from every county in the State and oftentimes granted. In 1884 the great Blaine wave in California made the Legislature overwhelmingly Republican, and as United States Senator James T. Parley's (Dem.) term was to expire on March 3, 1885, there was much stir over his successor. The Legislative body was also pro-railroad, and Ex-Senator A. A. Sargent, who owing to Cleveland's election as president, was about to lose his place as Minister to Germany, deemed that the Senatorship belonged to him, and in this view and worthy ambition he was earnestly supported by Collis P. Huntington, Vice-President of the Southern Pacific railroad company, and one of the original "big four" of the Central Pacific. But these gentlemen reckoned without the big man at the helm, President Leland Stanford. The truth of history is that Stanford personally did not want the Senatorship if an available man could be found to take it, but in 1883 Creed Haymond, then Chief Counsel of the Southern Pacific, went to London, where the President then was, and partly convinced him that it would be the best for all concerned that the Senatorship be conferred upon the head of the great corporation. This was more than a year before the campaign for Senator began. On his return to California Haymond divulged his plan to a few intimate friends. Some of Stanford's best friends were amazed and at first objected, as giving up the party to the corporation, but Haymond persisted with all the eloquence that the suave and brilliant Virginian possessed. Haymond did not like Sargent, and he knew that Stanford had not forgotten the incident of the convention of 1875 in which the then Senator figured conspicuously with Gorham and others against the railroad interests (although only temporarily).

After the legislators were elected in 1884, Haymond, Henry Vrooman, David McClure, Stephen Gage, "Jack" Wright and other warm friends of Stanford vehemently insisted that the Ex-Governor should be the Senator, and finally, although still protesting, Leland Stanford consented and the following January was elected United States Senator. The writer of this was in the confidence of Creed Haymond at the time and always remained his friend and knows whereof he speaks. In the caucus Ex-Governor Perkins received thirty complimentary votes. Sargent was not in the running. The Democrats selected George Hearst as their candidate. Stanford was re-elected in 1891. The Senator died June 21, 1893, while serving his second term as Senator. The Legislature not being in session, on July 22 following Governor Markham appointed Ex-Governor George C. Perkins of Oakland to the vacancy. Perkins was elected for every term since, retiring from the Senate March 5, 1915, twenty-two years consecutive service as United States Senator.

First White Settlers
The first foreigner of non-Spanish blood who expressed a desire to become a permanent settler in California was one Joseph O'Kane, who arrived in Santa Barbara in September, 1795, on an English merchantman called the Phoenix, Captain Moore, from Bombay. The Spaniards, Commandante of the Presidio registered him as "Josef O'Kane, a Boston Englishman, who was born in Ireland." O'Kane, who was probably a young rover, did not long appeal to the hospitality of the Santa Barbara Spaniards, for it appears they soon shipped him away to San Blas in Mexico. There was not another foreign candidate for settlement for 13 years thereafter. John Cameron ran away on a vessel from Scotland and changed his name to John Gilroy. Arriving at the port of San Francisco on the ship Isaac Todd in 1814, Gilroy, a boy of twenty, was brought ashore very ill from scurvy. He was taken to the Peralta ranch across the bay and tenderly cared for by Senora Bernal Peralta. Gilroy became a permanent settler married a descendant of the Sergeant Ortega who discovered the bay of San Francisco when with Portola's expedition in 1769, acquired a grant of land and lived to see the town of Gilroy established in Santa Clara county.

Division of the State.
The division of the State of California into two or three states has long been on the tapis. As early as 1852 the Legislature was asked to cut the Gordon knot, and again an attempt was made in 1853. Owners of large tracts of land in the southern part of the State complained of the burden of taxation—that their visible tracts of land were taxed heavily, while the miners of the northern section could hide their gold. In the Legislature a committee of 13 with Henry Crabb as chairman considered the bill of R. M. Wood of San Francisco to set the southern counties apart, but the subject was laid on the table. In 1855 David F. Douglas of San Joaquin failed to put through a similar bill, and in 1858 John D. Crosby of Trinity county had a bill providing for three States, a northern, central and southern—the latter to be admitted with a slavery clause. All failed. But in the Legislature of 1859, which was controlled by Southern Slavery element, the disunionists succeeded, a bill being passed allowing six counties of the southern portion to depart and form a new state, providing the voters of that section favored it. But it does not appear that Governor Weller ever enforced that law, for on January 12, 1860, Governor Latham notified the Legislature in a special message that he had transmitted to President Buchanan a copy of the Act of the late Legislature relating to division. Daniel Rogers again brought up the question before the Legislature and division was again adopted by both Houses. But the authorities in the national Capital were absorbed by greater questions; Lincoln was elected president, and the papers tending to create another slave State still sleeps in the archives at Washington. In recent years the question of division has again appeared, but as long as the southland has goodly representation in Congress and frequently the Governor and other State officers, there does not appear to be any serious demand for division. On this subject the Constitution of the United States reads as follows: "New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union, but no new State shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state, nor any state formed by the junction of two or more states, or parts of states, without the consent of the Legislatures of the states concerned, as well as of Congress."

Where "Angels" Fear to Tread

On November 5th you will vote on an amendment that will vitally affect every person in California. It goes to the root of the health of at least 80 per cent of the total population of the State—the people who must measure their dollars to get out of life something more than a mere existence.

This Amendment is the Dental Bill that aims to destroy the power of the MINIMUM-FEE-FIXERS and place dentistry where it belongs—at the command of all the people.

Statistics show that only 20 per cent of the people go to dentists, except perhaps to have a painful, utterly decayed tooth extracted. The reason? Because the kind of dentistry that saves teeth, that makes good health possible, that prolongs life, has been placed beyond the reach of the great mass of people by the "ethical" dentist.

The so-called ethical dentist is bitterly opposed to this new law. At the first reading of it you will wonder why. You will see by its provisions that it raises the qualifications of membership on the State Board of Dental Examiners—that it does not lessen legitimate standards of dentistry, that it protects patients under the influence of anaesthetics, when they most need protection.

But if these provisions jar the sensitive nerves of the "ethical dentist", it is as nothing compared to the amendment's great unforgivable offense: It brings the fixed prices of the ethical dentist face to face with competition—and this is the ground where even angels must not tread. For if there is any one thing disastrous to the "ethical dentist"—it is this!

Perhaps you did not know that the "ethical dentists" have agreements as to MINIMUM FEES—not as to maximum. That is benignly left to the size of the patient's purse and the courage of the "ethical" practitioner. But don't take our word for this. Here's the best evidence in the case—an actual reproduction of the bill of minimum fees adopted by the most important chapter of the great State dental trust:

AN APPEAL FOR FAIR PLAY
In an eleven hour attempt to discredit me and my efforts to secure the election of office of Justice of the Peace, my opponent has circulated the report that I am regularly employed in the office of the County Auditor at a salary of $75.00 per month and, consequently, am not in need of the position which I seek.

This is untrue and a deliberate misrepresentation of fact, made for the purpose of deceiving the public.

The truth of the matter is that during the month of September I was employed by the Auditor for the purpose of assisting in the computation of the tax rolls. The position was open to me for but one month and if there is any doubt about this it can be verified by communicating with Mr. Shields, the Auditor.

If I had a position such as my opponent claims I have or was physically able to secure one of another kind, I would not mix in politics or seek an office, the salary of which is $100.00 per month, especially in these days when there are many positions open

I have been dependent on others long enough and now have the opportunity to secure a position which I can handle, thus being able to do something to help myself and it is on these grounds that I ask for your support.

In order that there be no misunderstanding on the part of the voters as to my motives and as a matter of fairness presenting my position I am at this last moment forced to issue this statement. MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

Charles Holbrook and family have closed their pretty home here and have opened their winter place at 1302 Washington street, San Francisco.

During the week the stork left a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ahlert, near Roche.

Mrs. Margaret Fitzpatrick, beloved mother of Thomas Fitzpatrick, of this place, passed away at her home in San Francisco last Sunday after a long illness. She was an old and beloved pioneer of the city. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was a cousin of Father Peter C. York.

All the schools will be closed next week until further notice. It is most likely they will re-open on November 11, 1918.

Andrew Walsh having crossed the Atlantic and six times on the Crusier Galveston in conveying American soldiers to the front the government has awarded him the customary gold stripes for such service.

It was rumored last evening that the car in which the late John Parrott was killed was lifted from Camp Fremont, today. This has been, however, no official confirmation of the rumor.

State Health Officer Ross was here from Sacramento on Wednesday and being shown the filthy condition of the streets in town that official communication with the proper authorities and yesterday men were at work cleaning up the main thoroughfares.

M. Sheehy has been appointed commissioner to sell the Partridge property in Menlo Park. The commissioner will sell the property, really on the 25th of November to recover a judgment of $10,332.22 recently secured by J. A. McMahon against the property. The land is located at Stanford Park.

Joseph A. Parrott, son of Mrs. John Parrott and the late John Parrott and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Donohoe, passed away at the base hospital on Tuesday evening from influenza. The young man was born in San Mateo at the well-known Parrott home and was aged 25 years. He was beloved by all who knew him. During the first year of the war Parrott drove an ambulance in France, but his health failed him and he was forced to return home. Later he enlisted. Parrott was one of four brothers who enlisted. John Parrott was graduated from the first officers' training school at the Presidio and now is a lieutenant in the field artillery. William G. Parrott is a second lieutenant in the aero corps of the army. Edmund A. Parrott, who also joined the aero service was killed in action in France. Joseph Parrott's death makes the fifth bereavement of the family has suffered within the past year and a half. Francis Parrott, a brother of the deceased, was killed, in an automobile accident on the State highway and shortly after that, Mrs. Abby Parrott, mother of late John Parrott, passed away. John Parrott, San Mateo and San Francisco capitalist, and father of Joseph Parrott, died a few months ago, and then came word from France of the death in action of Lieutenant Edmund Parrott, another brother. Joseph Parrott's death last night makes the third son Mrs. Parrott has lost in a short time.

The many friends of Miss Frances Casey, a former resident of Menlo Park, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from her late illness. She had a severe attack of influenza at her apartments in San Francisco and for a time her life hung in the balance.

Thomas Carlier was taken severely ill while hunting on the marsh on Wednesday. He was brought home by W. T. Casey and was at once returned to the U. C. hospital from which institution he was discharged only late last week, having undergone a slight operation.

James Murray, the youngest son of J. J. Murray, left for the Rockwell Aviation Field at North Island, San Diego, on Wednesday, he having enlisted in that branch of the service some months ago. Being an expert mechanic he will follow his trade in that department.

James B. Mahoney, father of E. P. Mahoney of Menlo Park, passed away in San Francisco on Tuesday last after a short illness. The deceased was a native of Massachusetts, aged 74 years. Mr. Mahoney often visited his son here and was well-known. He was a resident of San Francisco for many years.

John W. Biggy, a Lieutenant at Camp Fremont and Miss Alice La Plante of San Francisco, were united in marriage in the Church of the Nativity last Saturday on the eve of the gallant lieutenant's departure for the front in France. James McGucken was the best man while Miss J. O'Brien acted as bridesmaid. Some years ago the lieutenant was a student at St. Patrick's Seminary but left to engage in business in the city. He is the late lamented J. W. Biggy at one time chief of police of San Francisco.

B. P. Flynn, trustee of the Selby property, has leased 150 acres of the large holdings to Mr. Shearer of Palo Alto who is to cultivate tomatoes. He is to drift an artesian well at once. The land fronts on Selby Lane. The Moulton and Schaberg lands near El Camino Real have also been leased to parties for the cultivation of tomatoes. It is said that $20 an acre is being paid in rent for the land.

San Mateo County Preservation League Urges Voters to Vote Yes on Number 10

Borough Amendment Guarantees Home Rule in Local Affairs to Counties—Is Considered a Vital and Necessary Safeguard to the Best Interests of the County

The San Mateo County Preservation League which is composed of representative citizens from every part of the county who are working unselfishly for the best interests of San Mateo county, has appealed to the voters of the county to support Amendment Number 10 on the ballot which guarantees self-government in local affairs to San Mateo County even if annexation to San Francisco should take place at some future time.

This amendment was placed on the ballot through the efforts of Assemblyman Frank L. Eskward of this county in order to safeguard our interests and it is of prime importance that the voters of San Mateo county vote overwhelmingly in favor of it.

The greater the vote cast in favor of this amendment in this the greater strength will be given to Eskward in his fight for the protection of our county in the legislature. Whether or not we favor annexation, Amendment Number 10 should receive our undivided support. It does not prevent annexation but insures our right to govern our own local affairs if annexation should take place at some future time.

No thinking voter will fail to support this necessary safeguard to the community, knowing that if annexation should carry without the protection of this amendment, the administration of the affairs of San Mateo county and the incorporated towns within it would be at the mercy of the politicians of San Francisco.

The endorsement of the San Mateo County Preservation League follows: To the Voters of San Mateo County
We have been confronted from time to time with attempts to uncondition-

WOODSIDE NOTES

B. L. Bradley and family, who have been at their summer home in Emerald Bay, Lake Tahoe, have arrived here to occupy their residence here for the winter months.

Mrs. Joseph Sados Tobin has returned from Woodside to San Francisco, where she has spent several months as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Dimond, and is established for the winter at her apartment in Powell street.

Raymond Stewart Adams, foreman of the Happy Valley Farm of Portola, passed away from influenza yesterday. The remains are at the Redwood City Undertaking Parlor and will be interred at Alta Mesa cemetery today. Mr. Adams was a native of California, aged 30 years. He had been a resident of Portola for the past year.

The high and grammar schools and Norte Dame Convent will not open next Monday. It is probable that they will re-open on November 11.

M. SHEEHAN,

The Dental Profiteer

The Dental Profiteer is one who advertises low prices for high grade work.

He usually gives low grade work for high prices. He is here today and gone tomorrow, leaving a string of victims in his wake.

Low priced incompetent dentistry is dear at any price.

This is the class of men whom Amendment No. 21 would admit to practice in California without examination.

California has no room for the Charlatan and Faker—for the Dental Profiteer.

If you do not want more of this type of dentists here

Vote NO on No. 21

EVERY USER OF ELECTRICITY CAN HELP WIN THE WAR

Every branch of the Electrical Industry in the United States is co-operating with the Government to bring our electrical power to the support of our country in its time of need. The brains of the country are being directed to the saving of some essential—fuel, food, time, money, labor, transportation.

Every pound of coal, every barrel of oil, every ounce of metal is imperative for war needs. Whenever the utilization of electricity, or the use of an electric appliance will effect such a saving, a distinct war service has been rendered. Never in the history of man has there been an opportunity for the realization of more necessary service and general good than is presented to the user of electricity today. All dealers in electrical appliances, and all power companies have been advised what constitutes electrical war necessities. Have a talk with our electrical contractor dealer and learn how you can make the electricity at your switch more valuable to the Government.
